HELPING YOU MAKE THE MULTIPLY SCHEME ADD UP

The Government have earmarked £560 million to invest in the maths skills of adults across the country with the aim of improving their prospects and economic value.

The Multiply scheme gives providers the ability to invest in the maths skills of their learners through funded training to meet their needs.

We have developed a range of learning resources to support providers to deliver under the Multiply scheme, all available on our online platform, eAssessor Pro.

Our initial multiply offer is made of four key pathways:

- Numeracy for Life (Covering 'real world' numeracy such as API, mortgages, interest)
- Numeracy in Health and Social Care
- Numeracy in Warehousing
- Numeracy in Hospitality and Catering

Each pathway is heavily contextualised to the sector, allowing learners to build knowledge through practice questions, theory, generic practice and contextualised practice.

1 in 4 adults believe school maths didn't prepare them well for maths in everyday life

49% of the working-age population of England have the numeracy level we expect of primary school children.

30% of people assume that maths is a skill you are born with, rather than a skill that can be learnt

Statistics source: National Numeracy

Multiply

Many of our learners have gone into accredited courses and have stated that this programme has helped build their confidence in maths and encouraged them to complete a Functional Skill. It has helped learners to refresh maths that they had been taught many years ago and allowed them to value their mistakes, take risk and most importantly persevere. The system is easy to use and each unit is broken down to make it easy to understand.

COMPLETE VISIBILITY WITH VISION ONLINE

'Vision' is our bespoke management information system that tracks learner progress from enrolment through to certification.

Our user-friendly platform gives colleges the ability to see the status and details of their learners and receive extensive reporting data in real time, in just four easy clicks. You can store all learner paperwork electronically in a V-File and download scanned evidence where required. When a learner completes their programme, we will send you a copy of the learner's certificate, together with a summary of activity downloaded from Vision.

Integrated Student Management and Information System

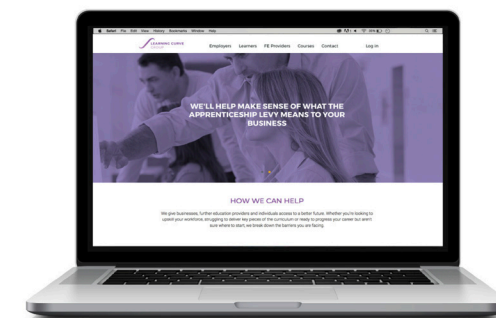

We use the latest Integrated Student Management and Information System, allowing us to share data directly with the organisations we work with, creating both time and cost-efficiency benefits surrounding input, reporting and measurement. We can set up data transfers, sending either enrolment or completion data electronically, and with compatible MIS systems, organisations can import this directly into their system.

ILR data can also be stored electronically and checked via DSATs, reducing the likelihood of any queries before enrolment forms are dispatched, again saving time and money. We have also now increased reporting and data capture flexibility to meet providers' requirements.

We can supply all enrolment data inputs electronically which will reduce your administration.

“ We have found Vision to be an incredibly useful tool for immediately accessing learner data. The easy-to-use portal provides great visibility and is an efficient and robust mechanism for our team to ensure we are complying with audit requirements.
