My Apprenticeship Journey

Hear from one of our incredible learners from The Hut Group who has experienced the journey firsthand.

Mirela undertook Learning Curve Group's Supply Chain Warehouse Operative apprenticeship at The Hut Group with the hopes of diversifying her skills, gaining education, and progressing in her career.

Mirela's apprenticeship journey has proved immensely beneficial for her. It has not only boosted her confidence but has also deepened her understanding of the supply chain field. The course has positively impacted her competency in her role and allowed her to have a more informed perspective!

Throughout her apprenticeship, Mirela has gained a range of knowledge and skills, and has found that the journey has helped her learn new things and accept change. The course has equipped Mirela with the skills to find, evaluate, and use knowledge from diverse sources, enhancing her negotiating and analytical skills.

Mirela Oana Burcea

Level 2 Supply Chain Warehouse Operative Apprentice

A highlight of the programme for Mirela was her task to produce a high-standard piece of work for the Speaking, Listening and Communicating aspect where she created an engaging presentation advocating for a more sustainable thinking when shopping and buying food, highlighting her commitment to using her learning for good!

Mirela has since been applying her gained skills and knowledge to her role, ensuring compliance with regulations, preventing accidents, and promoting a safe working environment.

She recommends others considering a supply chain apprenticeship to do one, emphasising its diverse applicability and relevance in today's world. She recommends embracing the challenges as it really equips individuals with essential skills and knowledge which will benefit their career in supply chain management!
