

I'm more efficient when doing my job and I feel more confident...

Hear from one of our incredible learners from LWC Drinks Ltd who has experienced the journey firsthand.

My Apprenticeship Journey

Lewys, who has completed his Supply Chain Warehouse Operative apprenticeship at LWC Drinks Ltd, has found his programme and the support provided to be really positive.

Choosing an apprenticeship, Lewys has developed numerous key skills and behaviours whilst overcoming barriers. Facing challenges initially in getting his off-the-job hours up-to-date, Lewys found this to be achievable through the exceptional guidance and support of his Vocational Skills Coach, Liam, by reviewing the year to identify any missed hour-logging.

The key skills and behaviours that Lewys has developed have been enhanced communication skills, increased efficiency in his job role, and a boost in self-confidence! The apprenticeship has also provided him with valuable knowledge about how the business operates.

Lewys has found that his apprenticeship has positively impacted his ability to do his job by allowing him to acquire a deeper understanding of the company's operations, contributing to the development of new skills and knowledge.

He is extremely grateful for his Vocational Skills Coach, Liam, who has massively contributed to his skill development, including improved communication and language, and increased his confidence and efficiency within his job role!

Lewys has said that an apprenticeship is a great foot in the door if you're unsure on whether to do one or not, saying "you meet a lot of great people and gain a lot of new skills!".
