My Apprenticeship Journey

Hear from one of our incredible learners from Poundland who has experienced the journey firsthand.

Tamas, an employee at Poundland, is completing an LGV Apprenticeship with Learning Curve Group (LCG). As he approaches his practical driving test toward the end of his programme, Tamas has found his apprenticeship really enjoyable, and he has gained a lot of knowledge and insight into the world of driving.

Initially undertaking this apprenticeship to learn a new skill, Tamas is now thoroughly invested in a driving career, excited to begin it with his employer. Any challenges that were thrown Tamas' way, he found that he was able to overcome them with the help of his Vocational Skills Coach Michelle, from LCG, who he found to be a very valuable and helpful asset throughout his learning journey.

Tamas has found that he has developed his skills and behaviours especially in regard to patience, taking the time to learn and focus on the task at hand. Customer service skills and knowledge, along with hazards whilst driving have been some of the key knowledge that Tamas has gained.

Once Tamas has obtained his full LGV licence, he hopes to secure a permanent driving position at Poundland with his newfound knowledge, skills and capabilities.

For anyone considering undertaking an apprenticeship, Tamas says “Go for it! It is definitely worth it. Just take your time and learn as much as you can”.
